

EUDIPLLO

Young Professionals Forum on EU Diplomacy

1 October 2021

Galatée Fouquet

Former EEAS JPD at the EU Delegation to El Salvador and to the Central American Integration System (SICA)

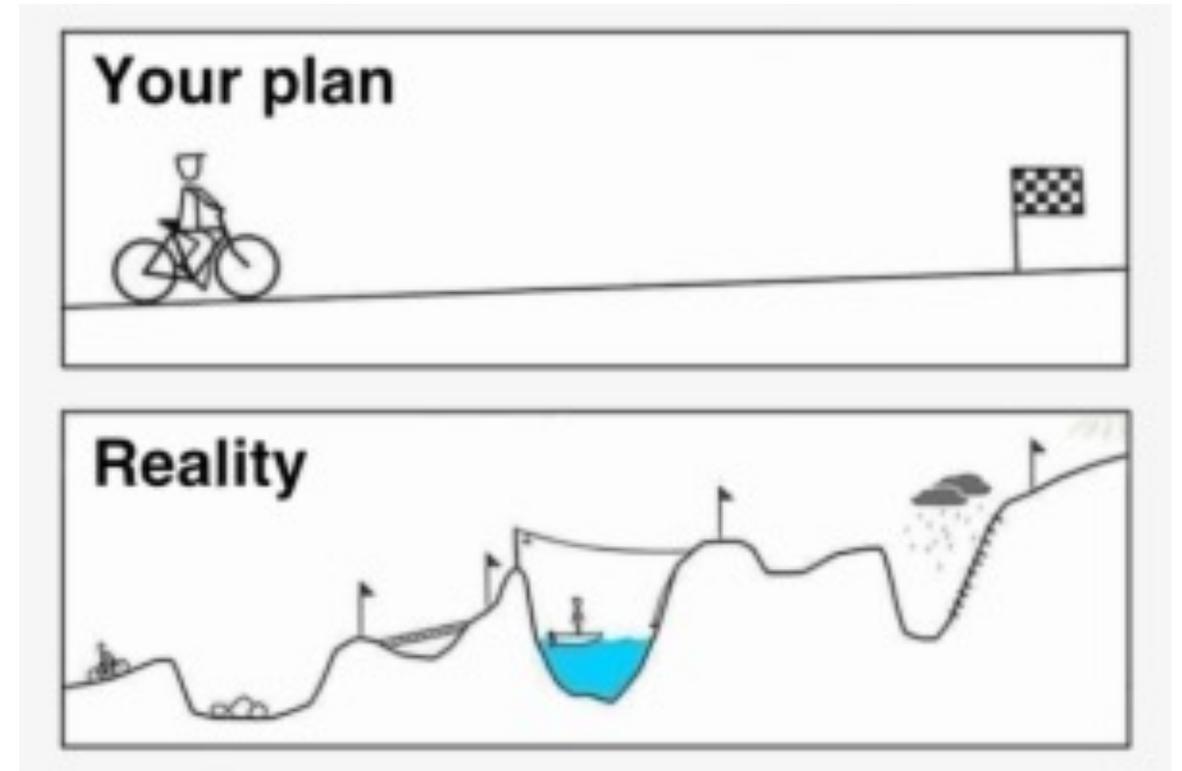

Main advantages of the JPD

- A valuable (and rare) 2-year experience
- Hands-on experience in EU external action and diplomacy
- Field experience, in most cases
- Access to trainings, additional courses on a wide range of topics, etc.
- An opportunity to learn about the work other sections do
- Invitation to the CAST exam (in year 2)

Some tips

- Expand your scope. Do not stick to one institution or one structure
- The most unexpected experiences are sometimes the best ones. Keep an open mind!

- Recruitment processes take time. Start early
- Even if you are not actively looking for a new position, check job offers on a regular basis
- Interviews require preparation, practice, but also luck. A bad interview or a “no” do not reflect your worth and value
- Networking – do not hesitate to ask for recommendations from former colleagues, professors, alumni, etc.

Application processes can be tough.

Keep trying, be patient

“Trust your hard work.

It’s unlocking doors you can’t see yet”
